

As autumn leaves cascade in a symphony of reds and oranges, movie buffs take to their screens in search of the perfect film to match the season's eerie ambiance. October is not just about Halloween spook-fests; it is a time when the film industry releases a variety of genres to entertain audiences across the globe. This October, the internet has been abuzz with searches for a mix of new releases like "Saw X" and old prequels of recently released movies. Some films have gained renewed interest due to related mini-series on streaming platforms, like "The Fall of the House of Usher," which has a new adaptation on Netflix. In this article, we dive into the data and explore the 5 most searched Movies on Internet in October 2023.

5 Most Searched Movies on Internet in October 2023

1. The Fall of the House of Usher
2. Friday the 13th: The Awakening
3. Saw X
4. Expend4bles
5. The Exorcist (1973)

The Fall of the House of Usher

5 Most Searched Movies on Internet in October 2023 - The Fall of the House of Usher

“House of Usher,” originally titled “The Fall of the House of Usher,” takes the first spot on our list and might come as a shock to many. This 1960 classic, approved with a runtime of 1 hour and 19 minutes, has re-emerged in the public eye, partially due to the success of a mini-series based on the famous book by Edgar Allan Poe, available on Netflix. This curiosity has brought people to Google in search of more information, leading them to this vintage gem.

Directed by Roger Corman and written by Edgar Allan Poe and Richard Matheson, “House of Usher” stars Vincent Price, Mark Damon, and Myrna Fahey. The film unfolds as a man, upon entering his fiancée’s family mansion, discovers a savage family curse and fears that his future brother-in-law has entombed his bride-to-be prematurely. This compelling plot, combined with stellar performances and classic horror elements makes for good rewatch into the 60’s.

Friday the 13th: The Awakening

Friday the 13th: The Awakening

Second on our list is “Friday the 13th: The Awakening,” a fresh addition to the horror franchise that was released in 2023. This 1-hour and 4-minute film introduces a thrilling new storyline where Ash Williams, played by Courtney Ann Mangold, reads from the Necronomicon and accidentally awakens the infamous Jason. It’s then up to her and an unconventional lumberjack to set things right.

Directed and written by Oktober Layne, along with Jeff Lee Spencer, this movie offers an exciting blend of horror and action. The cast includes notable performances by Anna Parsons, Oktober Layne, and Travis Dene Mangold, amongst others. If you’re a fan of the “Friday the 13th” franchise or looking for a new horror movie to watch, “Friday the 13th: The Awakening” is a must-see.

Saw X

*5 Most Searched Movies on Internet in October 2023 - Saw X

“Saw X” takes the third spot on our list and it’s no surprise given its status as the revival of one of the most iconic horror franchises. Released in 2023, with an R rating and a runtime of 1 hour and 58 minutes, “Saw X” introduces a fresh and macabre storyline that intertwines with the infamous traps from the ‘Saw’ universe.

Directed by Kevin Greutert and written by Pete Goldfinger and Josh Stolberg, “Saw X” tells the story of John, played by Tobin Bell, who travels to Mexico in a desperate attempt to find a cure for his cancer. Upon arriving, he discovers that the operation he was counting on is nothing but a scam, preying on the most vulnerable.

The film boasts a stellar cast including Shawnee Smith, Synnøve Macody Lund, and more. The production designer Anthony Stabley, alongside director and editor Kevin Greutert, and producers Oren Koules and Mark Burg, delves into the bloody details of the most gruesome scenes in the 'Saw' universe, creating a visually haunting experience for viewers.

"Saw X" has succeeded in capturing the essence of the franchise while also injecting new life into it. The revival has left many fans excited and eager to see what new horrors and intricate traps await. For those who have not seen it yet, "Saw X" is a must-watch that promises to deliver on thrills, chills, and everything in between.

Expend4bles

Expend4bles

Directed by Scott Waugh and written by Kurt Wimmer, Tad Daggerhart, and Max Adams, the film brings together a star-studded cast including Jason Statham, 50 Cent, Megan Fox, Dolph Lundgren, Tony Jaa, Iko Uwais, Andy Garcia, Sylvester Stallone, and Randy Couture.

In "Expend4bles," the Expendables face off against a powerful arms dealer who commands a massive private army. The team, armed to the teeth, represents the world’s last line of defense, called upon when all other options have failed.

Despite the anticipation from fans, especially those of Sylvester Stallone, “Expend4bles” failed to live up to expectations. Many felt that the movie was a stretch and lacked the originality and spark that made the earlier films in the franchise a success. Some critics and fans even suggested that it might be time for Stallone to hang up his boots and choose more diverse and challenging projects instead of sticking to the typical old action kicks. The movie received mixed reviews with a Metascore of 30, based on 112 critic reviews.

The Exorcist (1973)

*5 Most Searched Movies on Internet in October 2023 - The Exorcist (1973)

“The Exorcist” franchise has been one of the most iconic in the horror genre, with its intense and unsettling storytelling captivating audiences since the release of the first film in 1973. The original “The Exorcist” film was directed by William Friedkin, based on the novel by William Peter Blatty, and stars Ellen Burstyn, Max von Sydow, and Linda Blair. The story follows a mother who seeks the help of two priests to save her daughter, who has been possessed by a demonic entity.

The franchise’s lasting impact and popularity have prompted numerous sequels and adaptations, and the latest installment, “The Exorcist: Believer” (2023), is a testament to the enduring appeal of the story. This new film, directed by David Gordon Green, is set 50 years after the original and brings back Ellen Burstyn as Chris MacNeil, with a potential surprise cameo from Linda Blair. The film is planned to be part of a trilogy that will ignore the existing sequels and series that followed the original “The Exorcist.”

“The Exorcist: Believer” has brought new life to the franchise, and while it may not have reached the heights of the original, it still garnered attention from fans and critics alike. The film stars Leslie Odom Jr. as the father of a possessed child, who seeks out Burstyn’s character for support. Lidya Jewett plays the possessed child, and Ann Dowd plays her nurse. The film was released in October 2023, tapping into the Halloween season and the appetite for horror films during that time.

Also Read: 10 Most Searched Movies On Google in 2022