

This article takes you through a fascinating journey across different epochs, exploring Major Historical Events on April 10.

Major Historical Events on April 10- Today in History

1. The Genesis of International Law: Hugo Grotius - 1583 AD
2. A Fruitful Introduction: Bananas in London - 1633 AD
3. A Modest Invention, A Profound Impact: The Safety Pin - 1849 AD
4. The Founding of a Beacon of Innovation: MIT - 1861 AD
5. A Crusade Against Cruelty: Founding of the ASPCA - 1866 AD
6. The Roots of Arbor Day: A Celebration of Trees - 1872 AD
7. Voyage of Dreams and Despair: The RMS Titanic - 1912 AD
8. The Last Stand of Emiliano Zapata - 1919 AD
9. A Brief Reign: The Fall of Édouard Herriot's Government - 1925 AD
10. An American Literary Jewel: The Great Gatsby - 1925 AD
11. The Birth of a Cinematic Legend: Omar Sharif - 1932 AD
12. A Unified Vote: Austria's Anschluss Plebiscite - 1938 AD
13. The Dawn of Democracy in Japan: The Inaugural Parliamentary Election - 1946 AD
14. A Cinematic Courtroom Drama Unveiled: 12 Angry Men - 1957 AD
15. A Global Prohibition: The Biological Weapons Convention - 1972 AD
16. Constitutional Transformation in Pakistan - 1973 AD
17. A Cosmic Spectacle: Halley's Comet - 1986 AD
18. Bridging Seas: The Opening of the Seto Great Bridge - 1988 AD
19. A Path to Peace: The Good Friday Agreement - 1998 AD
20. A Landmark Law: The Legalization of Euthanasia in the Netherlands - 2001 AD
21. Glimpsing the Unseeable: Image of a Black Hole - 2019 AD

The Genesis of International Law: Hugo Grotius - 1583 AD

Hugo Grotius, a distinguished Dutch jurist and academic, authored the seminal work "De Jure Belli ac Pacis" (1625; On the Law of War and Peace), marking a pivotal contribution to the establishment of modern international law.

A Fruitful Introduction: Bananas in London - 1633 AD

For the first time, bananas became available for purchase in London, introducing a tropical delight to a new audience.

*Major Historical Events on April 10 - A Fruitful Introduction: Bananas in London - 1633 AD

A Modest Invention, A Profound Impact: The Safety Pin - 1849 AD

In the United States, Walter Hunt patented the safety pin and subsequently sold his rights to this simple yet revolutionary fastener for a mere $400.

The Founding of a Beacon of Innovation: MIT - 1861 AD

The Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), established by visionary William Barton Rogers, was conceived as a private land-grant university nestled in the academic and cultural heart of Cambridge, Massachusetts. This prestigious institution was founded on the principle of advancing knowledge in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM), with a dedication to applying this knowledge for the betterment of society.

A Crusade Against Cruelty: Founding of the ASPCA - 1866 AD

Henry Bergh, moved by an act of compassion in Russia, established the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA) in New York City, three years after intervening to stop a carriage driver from abusing his horse. This organization grew to be among the foremost in the fight against animal cruelty.

The Roots of Arbor Day: A Celebration of Trees - 1872 AD

Nebraska observed the inaugural Arbor Day, with over one million trees planted in a pioneering effort that would inspire similar observances across other U.S. states and countries.

*Major Historical Events on April 10 - The Roots of Arbor Day: A Celebration of Trees - 1872 AD

Voyage of Dreams and Despair: The RMS Titanic – 1912 AD

The RMS Titanic set sail on its first and only voyage, culminating in a tragic disaster as the luxury liner collided with an iceberg and sank.

The Last Stand of Emiliano Zapata – 1919 AD

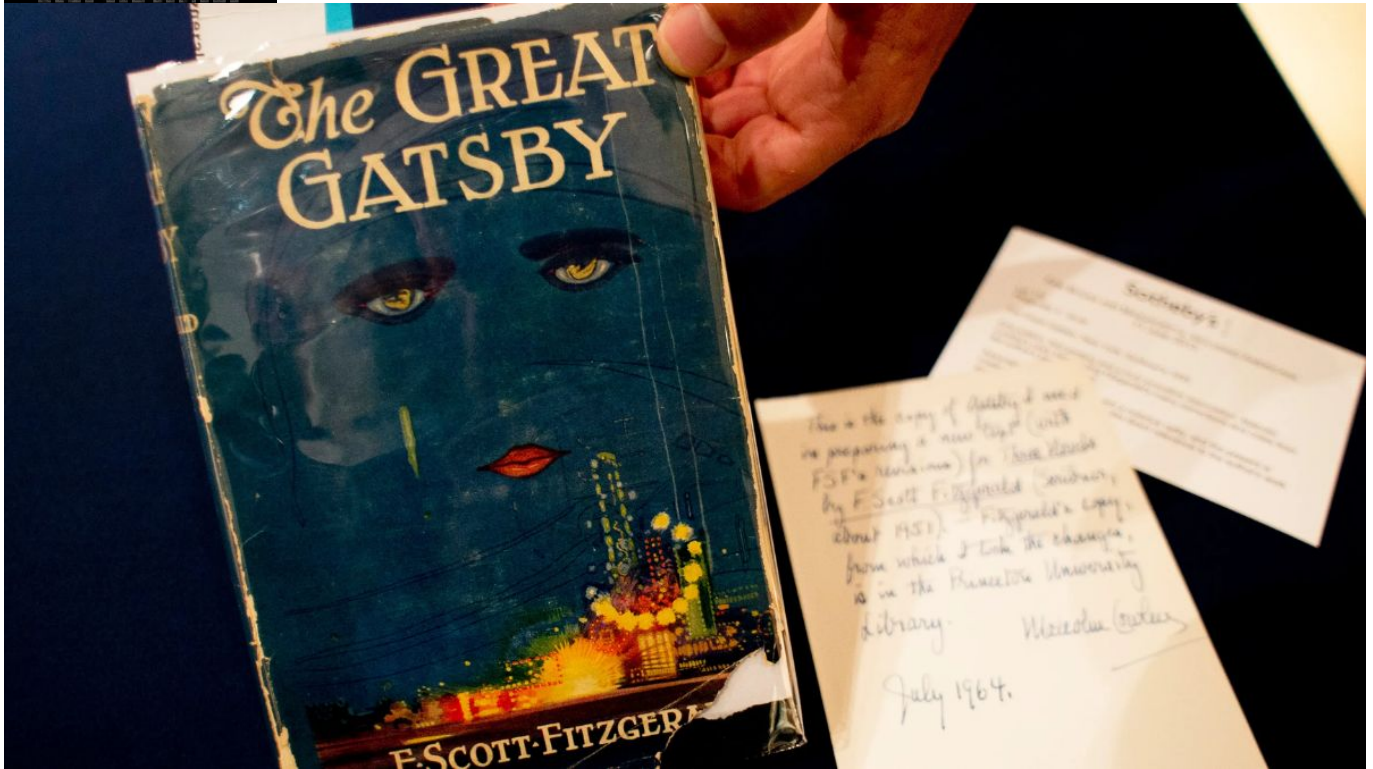

Mexican revolutionary leader Emiliano Zapata, an advocate of agrarian reform, met a tragic end when he was ambushed and killed, marking a pivotal moment in the Mexican Revolution's history.

A Brief Reign: The Fall of Édouard Herriot's Government – 1925 AD

Édouard Herriot's first stint as French premier, under the banner of the Radical Party and backed by the Cartel des Gauches coalition, ended as his government collapsed.

An American Literary Jewel: The Great Gatsby – 1925 AD

F. Scott Fitzgerald's "The Great Gatsby" was published, achieving enduring status as a masterpiece of American literature.

Major Historical Events on April 10 - An American Literary Jewel: The Great Gatsby - 1925 AD

The Birth of a Cinematic Legend: Omar Sharif - 1932 AD

Omar Sharif, celebrated for his memorable roles in classics like “Lawrence of Arabia” and “Doctor Zhivago,” was born, leaving an indelible mark on film history.

A Unified Vote: Austria’s Anschluss Plebiscite - 1938 AD

Following Adolf Hitler’s annexation of Austria, a controlled plebiscite saw 99.7 percent of Austrians vote in favor of the Anschluss, the political union of Austria and Germany.

The Dawn of Democracy in Japan: The Inaugural Parliamentary Election - 1946 AD

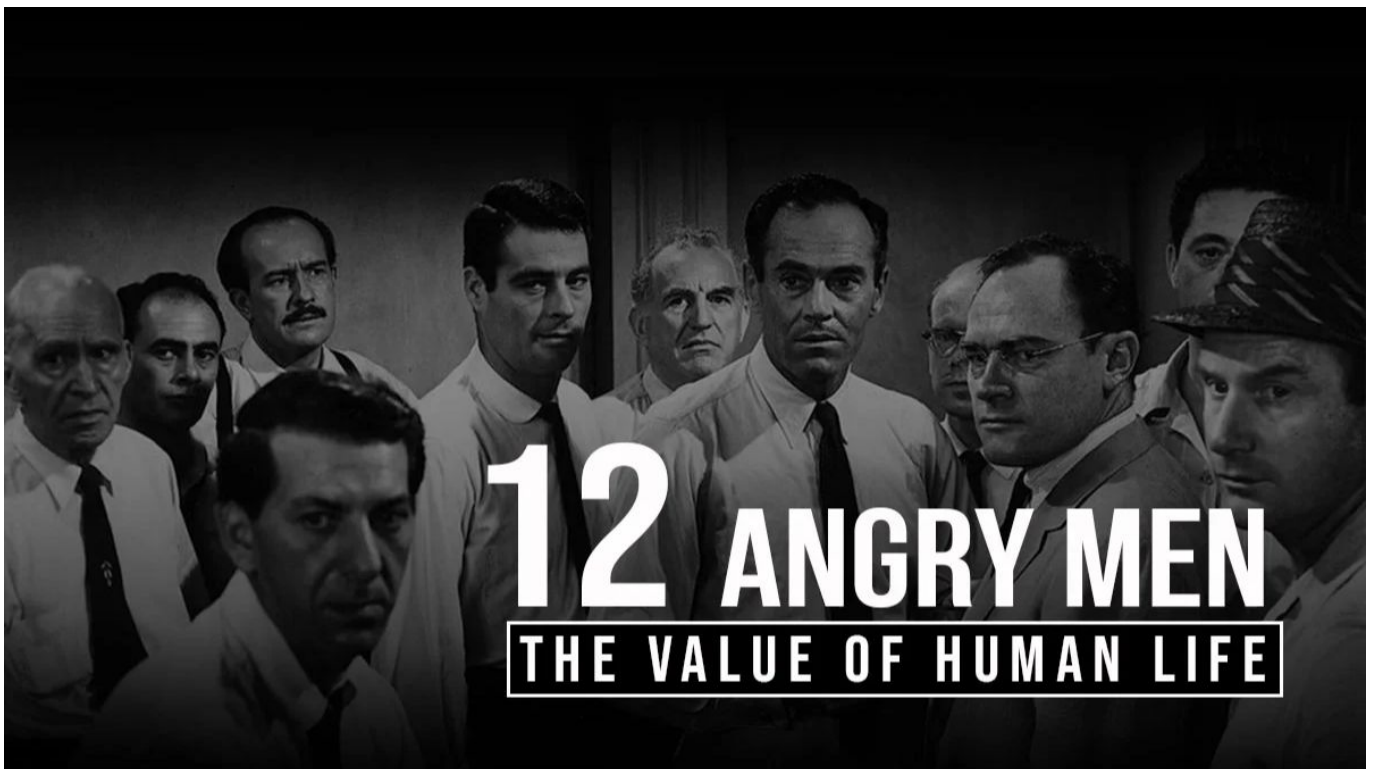

Marking a pivotal moment in the annals of Japanese history, the first election for the Japanese Parliament signified the nation’s earnest strides toward democratic governance.

This historic election laid the groundwork for a representative political system, inviting citizens to participate directly in the shaping of their government.

A Cinematic Courtroom Drama Unveiled: 12 Angry Men - 1957 AD

"12 Angry Men," featuring Henry Fonda in a compelling narrative about a juror determined to prove an accused murderer's innocence, premiered in the United States.

Major Historical Events on April 10 - A Cinematic Courtroom Drama Unveiled: 12 Angry Men - 1957 AD

A Global Prohibition: The Biological Weapons Convention - 1972 AD

The signing of the Biological Weapons Convention by over 150 countries signaled an international commitment to ban the development, production, and stockpiling of biological weaponry.

Constitutional Transformation in Pakistan - 1973 AD

Pakistan adopted its third constitution, transitioning Zulfikar Ali Bhutto's role from president to prime minister, signifying a pivotal shift in the country's governance.

A Cosmic Spectacle: Halley's Comet - 1986 AD

Halley's Comet made its closest approach to Earth during its most recent orbit, captivating stargazers worldwide.

Bridging Seas: The Opening of the Seto Great Bridge - 1988 AD

After a decade of construction, the Seto Great Bridge, which spans the Inland Sea in Japan, was inaugurated, enhancing connectivity and infrastructure.

*Major Historical Events on April 10 - Bridging Seas: The Opening of the Seto Great Bridge - 1988 AD

A Path to Peace: The Good Friday Agreement – 1998 AD

The Good Friday Agreement, endorsing a devolved government in Northern Ireland, was signed and later ratified by Ireland and Northern Ireland, heralding a new era of peace.

A Landmark Law: The Legalization of Euthanasia in the Netherlands – 2001 AD

The Netherlands made history by passing a bill that legalized euthanasia, becoming the first country in the world to do so.

Glimpsing the Unseeable: Image of a Black Hole – 2019 AD

Astronomers unveiled the first-ever image of a black hole located at the center of the massive galaxy M87, a monumental achievement in space exploration.

Also Read: Major Historical Events on April 9- Today in History