

From ancient times to modern eras, July 1 has been a witness to significant events. Join us as we recount the Major Historical Events on July 1 that have made this day stand out through the ages.

Major Historical Events on July 1- Today in History

1. Sir Thomas More's Trial for Treason - 1535 AD
2. The Battle of the Boyne - 1690 AD
3. The Battle of Gettysburg Begins - 1863 AD
4. Formation of the Dominion of Canada - 1867 AD
5. The First Zoo in the United States Opens in Philadelphia - 1874 AD
6. The First Tour de France - 1903 AD
7. Introduction of the ZIP Code - 1963 AD
8. Signing of the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty - 1968 AD
9. Sony's Walkman Revolutionizes Music - 1979 AD
10. Hong Kong Reverts to Chinese Sovereignty - 1997 AD
11. The International Criminal Court Begins Sitings - 2002 AD
12. Marlon Brando Passes Away - 2004 AD
13. NAFTA Replaced by USMCA - 2020 AD

Sir Thomas More's Trial for Treason - 1535 AD

Sir Thomas More faced trial for treason after he refused to acknowledge King Henry VIII as the head of the Church of England. His steadfast principles led to his execution in 1535, making him a martyr for his beliefs.

The Battle of the Boyne - 1690 AD

In the pivotal Battle of the Boyne (1690), King William III of England triumphed over the deposed King James II, quashing James's attempt to reclaim the throne and securing Protestant ascendancy in Ireland.

The Battle of Gettysburg Begins - 1863 AD

The Battle of Gettysburg, which began on July 1, 1863, marked a turning point in the American Civil War. This crucial conflict ended with a decisive Union victory, significantly weakening Confederate forces.

*Major Historical Events on July 1 - The Battle of Gettysburg Begins - 1863 AD

Formation of the Dominion of Canada - 1867 AD

Canada Day commemorates the formation of the Dominion of Canada on July 1, 1867. Celebrated with parades, fireworks, and flag displays, this holiday marks the birth of a unified Canadian nation.

The First Zoo in the United States Opens in Philadelphia - 1874 AD

On July 1, 1874, the Philadelphia Zoo, the first zoo in the United States, opened its gates to the public.

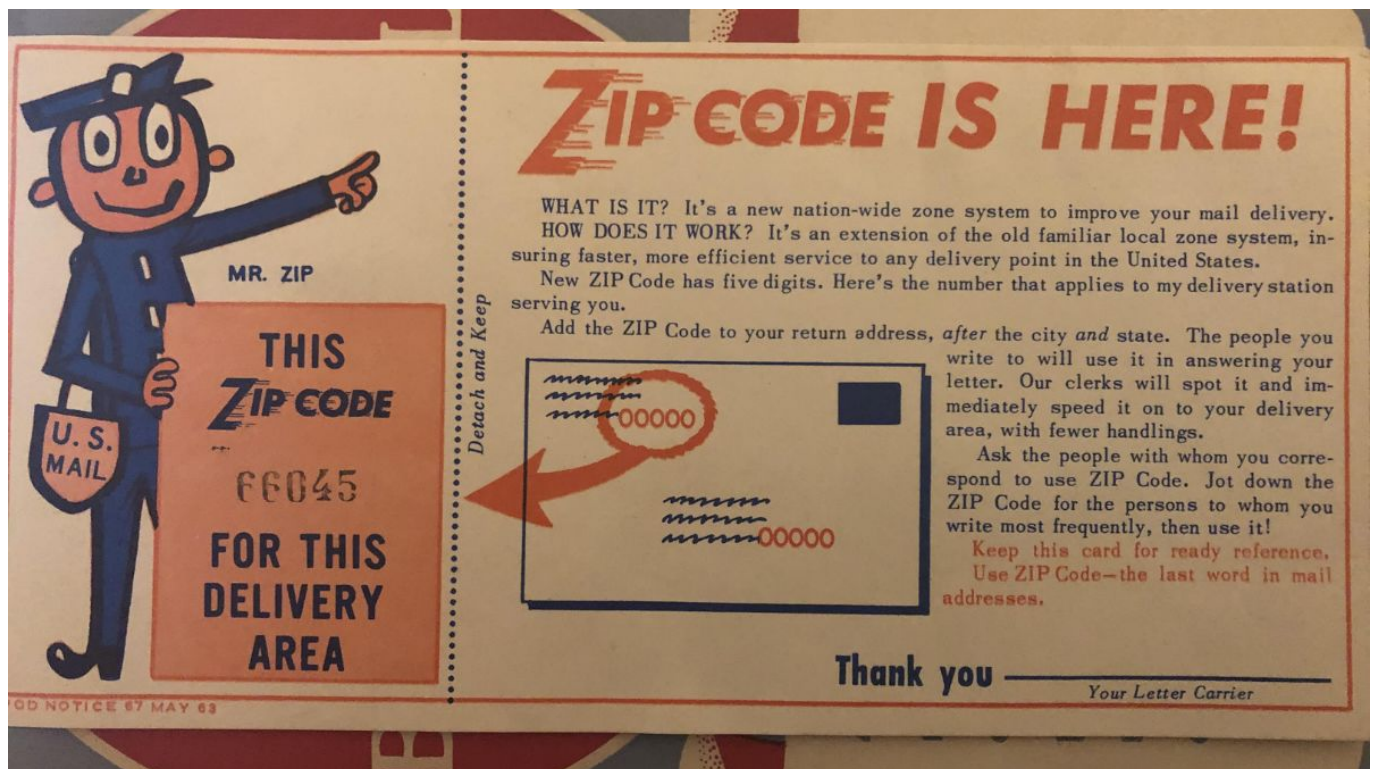

The First Tour de France – 1903 AD

The inaugural Tour de France kicked off in 1903, establishing itself as cycling's premier and most grueling race. This event now draws the world's top cyclists to compete across France's challenging terrain.

Introduction of the ZIP Code – 1963 AD

On July 1, 1963, the U.S. Postal Service introduced the ZIP Code system, revolutionizing mail delivery. The Zone Improvement Plan Code streamlined postal services, ensuring more efficient and accurate sorting and delivery.

Major Historical Events on July 1 - Introduction of the ZIP Code - 1963 AD

Signing of the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty – 1968 AD

In a historic move to curb the spread of nuclear weapons, the United States, the United Kingdom, the U.S.S.R., and 59 other countries signed the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty on July 1, 1968.

Sony's Walkman Revolutionizes Music - 1979 AD

Sony launched its revolutionary Walkman on July 1, 1979. This portable cassette player became an international phenomenon, transforming personal music listening by allowing people to enjoy music on the go.

Hong Kong Reverts to Chinese Sovereignty - 1997 AD

On July 1, 1997, Hong Kong transitioned from British to Chinese sovereignty, ending 156 years of British colonial rule. This significant event marked the beginning of the “one country, two systems” era for Hong Kong.

The International Criminal Court Begins Sitzings - 2002 AD

The International Criminal Court, established to prosecute individuals for genocide, war crimes, and crimes against humanity, commenced its first sittings on July 1, 2002, marking a new era in global justice.

*Major Historical Events on July 1 - The International Criminal Court Begins Sitzings - 2002 AD

Marlon Brando Passes Away - 2004 AD

On July 1, 2004, iconic actor Marlon Brando, known for his transformative method acting and roles in films like “The Godfather,” died at the age of 80. His legacy continues to influence actors worldwide.

NAFTA Replaced by USMCA - 2020 AD

The North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), which began in 1994, was officially replaced by the United States–Mexico–Canada Agreement (USMCA) on July 1, 2020, addressing modern trade issues and updating economic policies.

Also Read: Major Historical Events on June 30- Today in History