

Journey through time as we explore the Major Historical Events on July 2. This date has witnessed key moments that have left an indelible mark on history.

Major Historical Events on July 2- Today in History

1. Turning the Tide at Marston Moor - 1644 AD
2. Caesar Rodney's Midnight Ride - 1776 AD
3. Denmark Vesey's Ultimate Sacrifice - 1822 AD
4. Amistad Rebellion's Legal Triumph - 1839 AD
5. President Garfield's Fatal Shooting - 1881 AD
6. Zeppelin's Maiden Voyage - 1900 AD
7. Birth of Wisława Szymborska - 1923 AD
8. Patrice Lumumba's Legacy Begins - 1925 AD
9. Medgar Evers: A Civil Rights Martyr - 1925 AD
10. FDR's New Deal Vision - 1932 AD
11. Amelia Earhart's Disappearance - 1937 AD
12. Sam Walton Opens the First Walmart - 1962 AD
13. Signing of the Civil Rights Act - 1964 AD
14. Susan B. Anthony Dollar Coin - 1979 AD
15. James Stewart: The Everyman Hero - 1997 AD
16. Steve Fossett's Solo Balloon Flight - 2002 AD
17. Ingrid Betancourt's Rescue - 2008 AD
18. Elie Wiesel's Enduring Legacy - 2016 AD

Turning the Tide at Marston Moor - 1644 AD

In the pivotal Battle of Marston Moor, Parliamentary forces delivered the Royalists their first major defeat during the English Civil Wars, shifting the power balance significantly.

*Major Historical Events on July 2 - Turning the Tide at Marston Moor - 1644 AD

Caesar Rodney's Midnight Ride - 1776 AD

Delaware delegate Caesar Rodney made a dramatic all-night ride to cast the decisive vote for the Declaration of Independence, ensuring its approval just in time.

Denmark Vesey's Ultimate Sacrifice - 1822 AD

Denmark Vesey, executed in Charleston, South Carolina, for orchestrating what would have been the most extensive slave revolt in U.S. history, became a symbol of resistance.

Amistad Rebellion's Legal Triumph - 1839 AD

After a slave rebellion on the ship Amistad, the mutineers were acquitted in a landmark trial, recognized as kidnap victims rather than property—a significant win for abolitionism.

President Garfield's Fatal Shooting - 1881 AD

U.S. President James A. Garfield was shot on this day, leading to his death weeks later on September 19, an event that shocked the nation.

*Major Historical Events on July 2 - President Garfield's Fatal Shooting - 1881 AD

Zeppelin's Maiden Voyage - 1900 AD

The first zeppelin took flight, departing from a floating hangar on Lake Constance near Friedrichshafen, Germany, marking a milestone in aviation history.

Birth of Wisława Szymborska - 1923 AD

Polish poet Wisława Szymborska, known for her intelligent and empathetic verse that challenged Socialist Realism, was born; she later won the 1996 Nobel Prize for Literature.

Patrice Lumumba's Legacy Begins - 1925 AD

Patrice Lumumba, the first prime minister of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, was born in Onalua, Belgian Congo, marking the start of his influential but brief political career.

Medgar Evers: A Civil Rights Martyr - 1925 AD

Born in Decatur, Mississippi, Medgar Evers became a key figure in the civil rights movement; his assassination in 1963 made him a national martyr for the cause.

*Major Historical Events on July 2 - Medgar Evers: A Civil Rights Martyr - 1925 AD

FDR's New Deal Vision - 1932 AD

U.S. President Franklin D. Roosevelt introduced the term "New Deal" in his acceptance speech for the Democratic presidential nomination, outlining his vision for America's recovery.

Amelia Earhart's Disappearance - 1937 AD

American aviator Amelia Earhart vanished over the central Pacific Ocean while attempting to fly around the world, sparking one of history's greatest mysteries.

Sam Walton Opens the First Walmart - 1962 AD

Sam Walton opened the first Walmart store in Rogers, Arkansas, laying the foundation for what would become the largest retail chain in the United States.

Signing of the Civil Rights Act - 1964 AD

On this day in 1964, President Lyndon B. Johnson signed the Civil Rights Act, a landmark law that profoundly advanced the American civil rights movement.

*Major Historical Events on July 2 - Signing of the Civil Rights Act - 1964 AD

Susan B. Anthony Dollar Coin - 1979 AD

The United States introduced the Susan B. Anthony dollar coin, making Anthony the first woman depicted on U.S. currency, symbolizing a step towards gender equality.

James Stewart: The Everyman Hero - 1997 AD

American actor James Stewart, known for portraying the decent everyman overcoming adversity, passed away at 89, leaving behind a legacy of iconic film roles.

Steve Fossett's Solo Balloon Flight - 2002 AD

Adventurer Steve Fossett became the first person to circumnavigate the world alone in a balloon, achieving a remarkable feat in aviation history.

Ingrid Betancourt's Rescue - 2008 AD

After more than six years as a hostage, Colombian politician Ingrid Betancourt was freed in a daring rescue mission where soldiers posed as aid workers, ending her ordeal.

*Major Historical Events on July 2 - Ingrid Betancourt's Rescue - 2008 AD

Elie Wiesel's Enduring Legacy - 2016 AD

Romanian-born Jewish writer Elie Wiesel, who won the Nobel Peace Prize for his poignant works on the Holocaust, died at 87, leaving a lasting impact on world literature.

Also Read: Major Historical Events on July 1- Today in History