

Journey back in time and uncover the Major Historical Events on May 28 that have shaped our world. This day has been a witness to remarkable achievements and significant turning points.

Major Historical Events on May 28- Today in History

1. End of Crusader Rule in the Holy Land - 1291 AD
2. Birth of George I of Great Britain - 1660 AD
3. Publication of The Federalist Papers - 1788 AD
4. Napoleon Establishes the French Empire - 1804 AD
5. Passage of the Indian Removal Act - 1830 AD
6. Birth of Jim Thorpe - 1888 AD
7. Birth of the Dionne Quintuplets - 1934 AD
8. Founding of Volkswagen - 1937 AD
9. Neville Chamberlain Becomes Prime Minister - 1937 AD
10. Founding of Amnesty International - 1961 AD
11. Last Trip of the Orient Express: Paris to Bucharest - 1961 AD
12. Pakistan's Nuclear Tests - 1998 AD
13. Restoration of da Vinci's Last Supper - 1999 AD
14. Death of Maya Angelou - 2014 AD

End of Crusader Rule in the Holy Land - 1291 AD

The Crusader rule in the Holy Land concluded when the Mamluks captured Acre, the final bastion of the Kingdom of Jerusalem, in 1291, marking the end of Christian control in the region.

*Major Historical Events on May 28 - End of Crusader Rule in the Holy Land - 1291 AD

Birth of George I of Great Britain - 1660 AD

George I, born in Osnabrück, Germany, in 1660, served as the Elector of Hanover (1698-1727) and became the first Hanoverian King of Great Britain (1714-1727), ushering in a new royal dynasty.

Publication of The Federalist Papers - 1788 AD

In 1788, The Federalist Papers, a collection of 85 essays advocating for the ratification of the U.S. Constitution, were published in book form, penned by Alexander Hamilton, James Madison, and John Jay.

Napoleon Establishes the French Empire - 1804 AD

In 1804, Napoleon Bonaparte declared the establishment of the French Empire, marking a pivotal shift from the French Republic to a monarchical regime under his rule.

Passage of the Indian Removal Act - 1830 AD

In 1830, the Indian Removal Act was enacted, empowering President Andrew Jackson to allocate western prairie lands to Native American tribes in exchange for their ancestral lands, facilitating further white settlement.

*Major Historical Events on May 28 - Passage of the Indian Removal Act - 1830 AD

Birth of Jim Thorpe - 1888 AD

Renowned American athlete Jim Thorpe, celebrated as one of the greatest all-around athletes in history, was born in 1887, leaving a lasting legacy in sports.

Birth of the Dionne Quintuplets - 1934 AD

In 1934, the Dionne quintuplets, the first documented quintuplets to survive infancy, were born in Ontario, Canada, bringing worldwide attention to their family.

Founding of Volkswagen - 1937 AD

Volkswagen, the German automaker, was founded in 1937 to produce an affordable “people’s car,” originally operated under a Nazi organization, and later becoming a global automotive giant.

Neville Chamberlain Becomes Prime Minister - 1937 AD

In 1937, Neville Chamberlain assumed the role of Prime Minister of the United Kingdom, known for his policy of appeasement towards Nazi Germany.

*Major Historical Events on May 28 - Neville Chamberlain Becomes Prime Minister - 1937 AD

Founding of Amnesty International - 1961 AD

Founded in London in 1961, Amnesty International is dedicated to advocating for human rights and the release of political prisoners, earning the Nobel Peace Prize in 1977 for its impactful work.

Last Trip of the Orient Express: Paris to Bucharest – 1961 AD

The iconic Orient Express made its final journey from Paris to Bucharest, concluding 78 years of illustrious service. This legendary train, synonymous with luxury and intrigue, carried passengers on a nostalgic voyage through the heart of Europe.

Pakistan’s Nuclear Tests – 1998 AD

In 1998, Pakistan successfully conducted underground nuclear tests, becoming the seventh nation to develop nuclear weapons, altering the global geopolitical landscape.

Restoration of da Vinci’s Last Supper – 1999 AD

After two decades of meticulous restoration, Leonardo da Vinci’s iconic mural, The Last Supper, was unveiled to the public in 1999 at Santa Maria delle Grazie in Milan.

*Major Historical Events on May 28 - Restoration of da Vinci's Last Supper - 1999 AD

Death of Maya Angelou - 2014 AD

American poet and memoirist Maya Angelou, acclaimed for her autobiographical works addressing economic, racial, and sexual oppression, passed away at the age of 86 in 2014.

Also Read: Major Historical Events on May 27- Today in History