Aurora (from "Sleeping Beauty")

Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with A - Aurora

Aurora, often recognized as Sleeping Beauty or Briar Rose, epitomizes the innocence and purity of classic Disney princesses. Raised secluded from the world, her kindness shines through her interactions with nature and woodland creatures, painting a picture of a gentle soul. Her longing for love and adventure, captured poignantly in “Once Upon a Dream,” resonates universally, making her aspirations relatable.

While she navigates the complexities of her royal lineage and curse with grace, it’s her authenticity and genuine spirit that truly endear her to audiences. As one of the original Disney princesses, Aurora’s legacy intertwines with nostalgia, solidifying her status as a cherished figure in popular culture.

Abu (from “Aladdin”)

*Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with A - Abu

Abu is Aladdin's loyal monkey companion, known for his kleptomaniac tendencies and spirited high-pitched voice. This mischievous yet endearing character was inspired by "Abu the thief" from the 1940 film "The Thief of Bagdad." While often finding himself in comical predicaments, especially when paired with Iago, Abu remains steadfastly devoted to Aladdin.

His mix of playful mischief, unwavering loyalty, and amusing interactions with other characters contributes to his enduring appeal and likeability. Whether it's safeguarding Aladdin's secrets or reluctantly participating in Iago's schemes, Abu's character offers both humor and heart, making him an essential and beloved figure in the Aladdin universe.

Alongside quirky allies like Kristoff and Olaf, she faces peril with courage and learns that true love transcends romantic interest. Anna's bravery, unwavering loyalty, and genuine warmth make her an incredibly likable character, symbolizing the strength of sisterhood and familial love.

Anastasia Tremaine (from "Cinderella")

Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with A - Anastasia Tremaine

Anastasia Tremaine, initially depicted as an unkind stepsister in Disney's "Cinderella," undergoes significant character development in subsequent films. While she starts as a demanding and less-attractive character, later sequels reveal her deeper layers. In "Cinderella II", she falls for a baker, learning the value of genuine love with Cinderella's encouragement.

"Cinderella III: A Twist in Time" showcases her moral struggles and eventual stand against her manipulative family for the sake of true love. As her character evolves, so does her appearance, transitioning from plain to more endearing. This growth makes Anastasia a more relatable and likable figure to the audience.

Arlo (from "The Good Dinosaur")

Arlo

In a world where dinosaurs never went extinct, young Apatosaurus Arlo struggles with his fears and seeks his place in his farming family. After getting lost far from home with a feral cave boy named Spot, Arlo faces numerous challenges, including predatory pterodactyls and a Tyrannosaurus family.

Arlo's journey is transformative; he begins as timid but evolves into a courageous and loyal protector. His bond with Spot highlights the importance of family, and by the end, Arlo returns home, having matured and earned his place in his family.

Andy Davis (from "Toy Story")

Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with A - Andy Davis

Andy Davis is a pivotal character in the “Toy Story” franchise, symbolizing the joys and pains of growing up. As the beloved owner of toys like Woody and Buzz Lightyear, Andy undergoes a transformation from a imaginative child to a mature young adult. His deep bond with his toys is evident in the intricate stories he crafts during play.

Andy’s inherent kindness shines when, instead of discarding his toys as he heads to college, he gifts them to a younger child, Bonnie, ensuring they remain cherished. Andy’s character serves as a poignant reminder of the ephemeral nature of childhood and the enduring love between toys and their owners.

Angus (Merida’s horse from “Brave”)

*Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with A - Angus

Angus, a majestic Shire horse from Disney/Pixar's "Brave," is Merida's loyal steed and companion. Despite occasional stubbornness, Angus remains devoted to Merida, accompanying her on adventures from spirited forest rides to seeking out the Witch's Cottage following the mysterious will o' the wisps.

When Queen Elinor is transformed into a bear, Angus aids Merida in her quest to reverse the curse. Their strong bond is underscored in the film's end as they, alongside Queen Elinor, traverse the Scottish landscape together, symbolizing familial reconciliation.
