

Disney movies have been a favorite among people of all age groups. It has all kinds of characters - princes & princesses from far away kingdoms, children exploring fantasy lands, mythical creatures, villains, and speaking animals as well as objects. Watching these characters, and relating to them is a temptation none can resist. These characters have names which just roll on our tongues even though they might sound weird. But have you ever wondered or tried to test yourself about how many characters are named with a particular letter? For example, the letter 'C'. In this blog titled 'Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with C', we will be introducing you to some well-known and some less-heard Disney characters having names with the letter 'C'.

Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with C

1. Cinderella
 2. Cruella de Vil
 3. Captain Hook
 4. Christopher Robin
 5. Cheshire Cat
 6. Carl Fredricksen
 7. Charlotte La Bouff
 8. Cogsworth
 9. Camilo Madrigal
 10. Colette
- Cinderella

Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with C - Cinderella

Cinderella's story is not just about rags to riches, glass slippers, or fairy godmothers. It's a testament to her unyielding hope and kindness in the face of adversity. Raised in the confines of a château, she faced emotional abuse from her stepfamily, yet her spirit never wavered. With a little magic and a lot of heart, she transformed from a scullery maid to a princess. But it wasn't the royal title that defined her; it was her inner strength, her clever wit, and her unyielding kindness. Cinderella teaches us that no matter how grim the circumstances, maintaining a compassionate heart and a hopeful spirit can truly work wonders. And remember, when the clock strikes midnight, you might just find your own magic!

Cruella de Vil

Cruella de Vil

Cruella De Vil is the fabulously wicked villain from Disney's "101 Dalmatians," famous for her half-black, half-white hair and crazy obsession with making a fur coat out of adorable Dalmatian puppies. This fashion-forward baddie zooms around in her car with her bumbling henchmen, Jasper and Horace, causing trouble and hatching wild schemes to nab those puppies. With her over-the-top style, Cruella has become an iconic symbol of villainous chic, captivating audiences in movies, TV shows, and even her own backstory film, "Cruella," where Emma Stone brings a whole new flair to her evil escapades.

Captain Hook

Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with C - Captain Hook

Captain Hook, the iconic villain from Disney's "Peter Pan," is the elegant yet ruthless pirate captain of the Jolly Roger. He's on a quest for revenge against Peter Pan for feeding his left hand to a persistent crocodile. Hook's misadventures with Peter, his complex relationship with his bumbling first mate Mr. Smee, and his comical run-ins with the crocodile make him a memorable and multi-faceted Disney character named with 'C'. Watch out for this cunning and manipulative pirate, or you might find yourself walking the plank!

Christopher Robin

Christopher Robin

Christopher Robin, a boy with a big heart and an even bigger imagination! He's the proud owner of the world's most famous bear, Winnie the Pooh, and together with their pals Piglet, Tigger, Eeyore, Kanga, and Roo, they have the wildest adventures in the Hundred Acre Wood. He's also the voice of reason among his stuffed animal crew, acting like a cool big brother who helps guide them through their fun-filled journeys. But life isn't always a honey pot of adventures for Christopher. As he grows up, school and work takes over, turning him into a workaholic. This makes him forget about fun, family, and fluffy friends. Thankfully, after a little bit of magic and a lot of reflection, he realizes that sometimes "doing nothing leads to the very best something."

Cheshire Cat

Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with C - Cheshire Cat

The Cheshire Cat in “Alice in Wonderland” is an enigmatic feline known for his mischievous grin. He serves as both a guide and a troublemaker during Alice’s adventures in Wonderland. This mysterious cat possesses the unique ability to vanish and reshape his body at will. While he’s often playful and kind to Alice, he can also be quite cruel, especially when it comes to provoking the irritable Queen of Hearts. The Cheshire Cat’s true motives remain unclear, adding to his enigmatic charm. He embodies the whimsical and mad nature of Wonderland’s inhabitants. Whether he’s leading Alice astray or helping her find her way, the Cheshire Cat is an essential and captivating character in this topsy-turvy world.

Carl Fredricksen

Carl Fredricksen

Carl Fredricksen, the grumpy yet endearing star of Disney•Pixar's "Up," started as a shy boy who idolized adventurer Charles F. Muntz. Shyness didn't stop him from bonding with Ellie, his future wife, united by their love for adventure. After Ellie's passing, Carl turned into a curmudgeonly old man, yearning for the past. Initially, Carl saw Russell, Dug, and Kevin as obstacles to moving his house to Paradise Falls. But after discovering Ellie's heartfelt message, he had a change of heart. Carl learned the value of friendship and embraced life's adventures. He realized that it's not the destination but the bonds formed along the way that matter most. In the end, he considered Russell as the son or grandson he never had, completing his heartwarming transformation.

Charlotte La Bouff

Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with C - Charlotte La Bouff

Charlotte “Lottie” La Bouff, the vivacious belle of New Orleans in “The Princess and the Frog,” is a Southern charmer with a heart as big as her extravagant dresses. As the daughter of the city’s wealthiest man, she could’ve easily become a spoiled brat, but beneath her ditziness lies a generous spirit. Lottie’s dreamy aspiration to marry a prince might seem superficial, but her genuine love for her best friend, Tiana, proves her depth. She willingly supports Tiana’s quest, even when her own prince charming is involved. Lottie’s unwavering loyalty and willingness to sacrifice her dreams for the happiness of others make her utterly endearing. With her flamboyant personality, diva flair, and undying quest for romance, Lottie adds a delightful dose of humor and warmth to the film.

Cogsworth

Cogsworth

Cogsworth, the enchanted clock from “Beauty and the Beast,” may seem pompous and strict at first, but there’s more to him than meets the eye. As the Beast’s majordomo, he takes his duties seriously and enjoys the power that comes with it. He’s also a bit of a know-it-all. He’s fiercely devoted to the Beast and does his best to keep the castle running smoothly. He acts as a peacekeeper, trying to minimize the Beast’s temper tantrums and make life easier for everyone. Beneath his stern exterior, Cogsworth has a heart of gold. He genuinely cares for his friends, like Lumiere and Mrs. Potts, and is always there to offer support and comfort.

Camilo Madrigal

Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with C - Camilo Madrigal

Camilo Madrigal from Disney's "Encanto" is the ultimate theater kid with a magical twist. As the middle child in the Madrigal family, he's not just any teenager; he's the life of the party with a unique gift - shapeshifting. Camilo loves entertaining and often uses his shape-shifting abilities to put on a show for his family and the townsfolk. With an outgoing and charismatic personality, he enjoys teasing and playing pranks on his relatives. But beyond his playful antics, Camilo has a caring side. He's great with kids, often helping out in the village, and looks out for his younger brother, Antonio. Camilo's close bond with his mother, Pepa, shows his sweet and nurturing nature. While he may struggle with the pressure of his gift, Camilo is a spirited and fun-loving teenager who adds a touch of magic to everyone's life.

Colette

Colette

Colette Tatou, from Disney Pixar's "Ratatouille," is one tough and talented chef. She's the only woman in the male-dominated world of Gusteau's kitchen in Paris, making her a true trailblazer. Colette's assertive and opinionated personality often comes across as tough, especially when she's training Linguini, a garbage boy turned cook. But beneath her tough exterior is a chef who believes in Gusteau's motto, "Anyone can cook." Colette's journey takes an unexpected turn when she discovers Linguini's secret - he can't cook, but Remy, a rat, can. Their relationship blossoms as they work together to save Gusteau's reputation. Colette is a symbol of resilience and determination, breaking barriers in the culinary world. She's not just a talented chef but also a believer in the power of cooking to bring people together.

Also Read: Top 10 Disney Characters whose names start with A