Which Superman is Immune to Kryptonite? - Kal Kent (Superman of the 853rd Century)
Kal Kent, the Superman of the 853rd century, is perhaps the most advanced version of Superman immune to Kryptonite. His powers have evolved far beyond those of the original Superman, Kal-El. Kal Kent draws energy from the Super-Sun, an enhanced version of the Sun that boosts his abilities. This future descendant of Superman boasts an impressive array of powers, including superhuman strength, speed, senses, and even electromagnetic manipulation. Crucially, Kal Kent is entirely immune to Kryptonite and red sun radiation, making him one of the most formidable Supermen in the multiverse.

Kingdom Come Superman

Another notable Kryptonite-immune Superman is the Kingdom Come Superman, introduced in the “Kingdom Come” series by Mark Waid and Alex Ross. This version of Superman is older and more experienced, having lived through many trials and tribulations. Over the years, his prolonged exposure to Earth’s yellow sun has made him resistant to Kryptonite. In this storyline, his immunity symbolizes his resilience and unwavering dedication to justice despite the many challenges he faces.
